CLUB

JOIN THE CLUB 2012 - 2013

This turn of the century French colonial villa, has been beautifully renovated in the very heart of Phnom Penh.

WELCOME TO THE VAULT CLUB

The Vault Club represents an exclusive membership of executive, business and professional men and women within Cambodia working together to improve commerce and trade throughout the Kingdom and globally.

Membership provides many privileges both in-country and overseas as the Vault Club promises to become the premier private members' club of Cambodia.

Close to Phnom Penh's financial district this former foreign trading house has been painstakingly renovated to its original splendour whilst combining a stylish contemporary element within - the destination of choice for all those who visit.

We look forward to welcoming you into the prestigious Vault Club.

ONE MEMBERSHIP - A WORLD OF BENEFITS

Apart from the privacy of the club itself, as a member you have exclusive access to our silver service, fine dining restaurant, and you can enjoy the comfort of The Vault lounge and bar.

Members are also entitled to a wide spectrum of benefits provided through our corporate partners' network - offering discounted rates for hotels, gym subscriptions and golf green fees to name but a few.

In regards to accessing other private member clubs worldwide, the Vault Club has already forged reciprocal agreements with a number of prestigious clubs within the region - a significant added value for our travelling members.

Further benefits and privileges include a programme of social events with members able to keep up-to-date with activities through our monthly newsletter. Our business directory is also available to those who wish grow their business interests in Cambodia.

The Club's gracious atmosphere provides the ideal setting for dining, business meetings and social entertaining.

CUISINE - SETTING THE GOLD STANDARD

Our head chef at The Vault Club - Al Scaff - is delighted to present his exciting menus blending contemporary Asian cuisine with traditional American and European favourites.

Having originally learned his trade amongst many of New York's finest kitchens, Al's wealth of experience at the highest level stands him in perfect stead to share his inspirational approach at the Vault.

Our menus change twice monthly offering members a continual flow of spectacular dishes throughout the year. To our members, these fantastic dishes come at an exceptional value, with membership subscriptions subsidising the food cost.

You'll find our luxurious premises the ideal location to relax and unwind.

THE EXCHANGE - RESTAURANT BAR

The ground floor of this classic colonial building is 'The Exchange', an ultra-chic restaurant bar with soft brick walls, arched windows and doorways. Open on all sides with ample garden dining areas, it's a fine place for both families and businessmen alike with a natural cool breeze flowing through it all year round.

At the very centre of The Exchange is our modern horseshoe bar, well stocked with all your favourite beverages whilst our extensive menu offers international flavours to suit every palate.

The Exchange offers the ideal surrounding to socialise with family, friends and colleagues.

The Exchange has the capacity to do private functions for up to 200 people.
